

Information on Overseas Voting

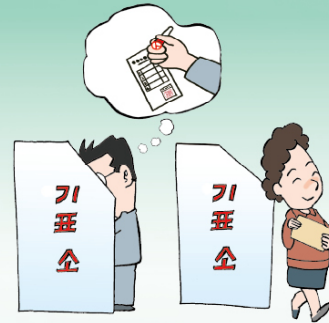

① Voter's Identification (Show your ID card)

② Receive ballot papers and an envelope

③ Fill in a ballot

④ Seal the envelope

⑤ Put the envelope into the ballot box

▶ Polling Stations and Voting Period

- Polling Stations : Diplomatic missions (If it is impossible to establish a polling station at an overseas diplomatic mission, an alternative facility will be designated by the Overseas Election Commission)
 - Voting Period : The Overseas Voting Committee will designate a period between March 28 and April 2, 2012
 - Voting Hours : During the voting period, everyday from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m.
- ↳ The overseas polling station, its location and the operating period, etc. will be posted on the website of the National Election Commission, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade, and each diplomatic mission.

▶ Voting Procedure

- ① Visit nearby overseas polling station, present your ID, and confirm that your name is on the voters list, receive one or two ballots and a return envelope
 - ※ Voters who have a valid, verifiable resident registration among overseas absentees will receive ballots for District/Proportional Representatives of the national assembly election.
 - ※ Voters who have reported a domestic residence among overseas absentees and overseas voters will receive ballots for Proportional Representatives of the national assembly election.
- ② Enter the polling booth, select one candidate or one political party (If it is a proportional representative National Assembly election), mark the appropriate column using the marking tool provided, put the ballot into the return envelope and exit the polling booth with the return envelope.
 - ※ A marking tool is provided in the polling booth.
- ③ Seal the return envelope that is equipped with double-sided tape. Do not write your name on the return envelope.
- ④ Drop the return envelope into the ballot box and leave the overseas polling station.

▶ Voting Requirements (one of the following forms of ID)

- ① A passport, resident registration card, public official ID card, or driver's license issued by a Korean government agency or public organization to identify the voter
- ② An ID card or certificate with a photograph, full name and date of birth issued by the government of the country where the voter resides (a certificate of alien registration etc.)

▶ As the following conditions make your vote invalid, caution is advised.

- Not using a return envelope or ballot granted by an overseas polling station
- Sending the return envelope without sealing it
- Not marking all columns
- Marking in two or more columns
- Officials not able to figure out which column is marked
- Filling out a column using a letter or any shape other than
- Filling out a column using any other data except for
- Marking with any tools that are not provided by the Election Commission

↳ Information and pledges of political parties, candidates for the 19th National Assembly Election will be posted on the website of the National Election Commission after the period of candidate registration ends. Visit us at www.nec.go.kr or ok.nec.go.kr