※ Tips

1. For the "Name" field, you must write the name as shown in the passport (including English).
  - ☞ However, if the name is differently registered on the passport and family relation register (family register), you must write the name on the family relation register (family register).
2. For the "Phone Number" and "Cell Phone Number," phone numbers (country code - area code - phone number) such as home/office and cell phone number must be written to enable contact from the residing country.
  - ☞ Phone number and cell phone number are used for instructions such as confirmation of overseas absentee criteria, confirmation of mail receipt, voting time/location, and for providing other various election information.
3. You must fill in the "E-mail" field because it is used to provide various election-related information/materials such as political party/candidate information prepared/sent by the National Election Commission, notification of overseas absentee list registration, guide to appeal application, and voting time/location/requirements.
4. For the "Overseas Address" field, the location where you can receive mail from the residing country must be accurately written inside the dotted line using the Roman alphabet or uppercase letters (local language can be additionally used).
  - ☞ However, a public office can be reported as an overseas address to receive mail for reasons such as work/profession/relocation/unclear address/poor mailing system of the residing country. In this case, after marking the , enter the name of the public office in the "Address" field.
5. For the "Voting Public Office" field, write the name of the public office where you will be actually voting during the overseas voting period.
6. For the "Applicant" field at the end, you must write your name and sign or seal.
